Dane Outreach will hold a breed education booth in conjunction with the Seattle Kennel Club Dog Show. This is an excellent opportunity to learn about the breed, ask questions and pick up educational literature. Great Danes will be available to "meet and greet" and Dane-experienced members of Dane Outreach will be happy to talk "Dane 101" with you.

Literature will be available on the breed, covering topics such as how to choose a good breeder, suggested guidelines that breeders should follow, information if the breed is right for you and other topics of interest.

If you are considering Great Dane ownership, please stop by and visit us. Note that un-entered dogs are not allowed at this venue, so please do not bring your dog. Also, the Seattle Kennel Club does charge an admission fee.

More information on the Seattle Kennel Club show can be found at
